

NOOR

Where your light shines

Life in the City

Noor is a place like no other. As soon as you enter the place, you will start shining and glowing with happiness. You will spread your light (happiness) to others too and brighter their day. People will start thinking about the change in you and wonder what has happened. They don't know it's all because of the place-NOOR – Where your light shines. You can pay a visit to this place whenever you feel that the ray of happiness and hope in you has disappeared. Noor is a city different from any other city. You might have never seen such a beautiful place. In this city, people wake up at the golden hour and don't really rely on the alarm clocks but on the cocks voice and their natural body clock to wake up. It is a city of dreams in which people from their boring and caged life want to escape to and pursue their passion. People are very keen to come here and pursue a simple life where there is freedom. You won't be able to get to know a lot about the city just by looking at the outward beautiful landscape. The city is made up of beautiful crops growing abundantly because of the farmer's hard work, the laughter of children playing and being lost in their imagination, gossip, and the laughing exercise of old people and people who are living in the present. The city keeps on prospering because of these things. This city is different from the bustling city life where people are slaves to work and think that they are happy but inside they are just tired of the rat race. It is a place where you see everyone in a very raw manner. They are appreciated for being who they are and there are no tags attached to them.

In this city, there are seven gates. You will have to be careful which gate to enter from. Some gates are huge, and there are beautifully carved-out designs on them.

Some are very narrow and dull looking. You will get into a maze if you enter the narrow gate but if you enter the narrow gate you will be able to enjoy the nature around you. Here, life is different from the huge cities where people are stuck in a never-ending cycle of work and work. Here there is freedom and people enjoy and live in the present. No one has a set routine in their mind here and everyone goes with the flow. People are deeply in touch with nature. In this city, people are happy with what they are doing. When you enter the city from the narrow gate, the city is beautiful, not just an illusion of being beautiful. People are not deceived when they come to this city as the reality matches their expectations. Even wild animals are friendly with humankind and vice-versa.

The Magical Library

The city has many domes. Some domes are star-shaped, and some are made in the form of flowers. You would be able to see the dome made in the form of a flower fold its petal-like architecture at night and open during the day. Rain makes the dome grow even more and more. But after a certain period, it stops growing. You will feel very protected and safe when you will go inside the dome, just like how the flower petal protects the plant. Once you go inside the dome, you will be able to see beautifully carved-out designs. You will also see a secret library in which people are given entry only if they answer the puzzling questions correctly. Only five out of several people who enter the library each day can answer the question. The questions are complicated because as soon as they enter the library, they will suddenly enter the fantasy world of books. They will experience the story they read in the book and take the place of the main character. Once you open any book from the library, the characters will come out of the book and the person reading the book, will become the main character, and it's upon him/her to twist the storyline. For example, the person can become Harry Potter and change the storyline according to his convenience. After the storyline in the book gets changed, the contents of the book get changed too. The criteria for entering the library is that only the people who think they are foolish, and not wise will be able to enter the library because they will be able to play the storyline perfectly. If the person wants to stop playing the storyline and doesn't want any other person to open the book and play his part, the person will have to give the book a tough password. So that next time, he/she will be able to start from the part he/she left, again.

Quarters of different interests

The streets of this city are paved with lead. You can even make pencils out of it. So, you don't even need to buy one. That's the reason, it's a perfect place for artists to be in. Artists will never regret living here. The lead roads are of various colors, so you can even make colored pencils out of them. Just be careful of the fact that you don't extract lead to make pencils when cars are passing through that place. It is a place where buildings are made in the shape of shells, starfishes, mermaids, stones, moon, stars, crystals, pebbles, some looked like sand castles, and also pyrite fossils. The main aim of this architecture is to make people wonder about the beauty of nature and the part of nature and the part of nature they have never discovered. You will be able to discover different areas of your interests in each quarter. In one quarter, you will be able to meet many musicians and see many museums related to music. The museums have many ancient musical instruments like 1-Mesopotamian Lyre, 2-Medieval Citole, 3-Ancient Egyptian Harp, and 4-Arabian Lute. You will even be taught by experienced musicians to play them and you will feel as if you are living in ancient times while playing them. You will never forget the wonderful experience. This city is against the rat race and here you can visit any quarter which interests you. You will never be able to leave your passion once you pursue it, be it singing, painting, farming, etc because you will enjoy it a lot. You will enjoy learning about your interest.

Finally, you will end up with a lot of light in you. The light symbolizes happiness, joy, love, and kindness which wipes off every form of darkness (depression, anger, hate). You will soon want to spread the beautiful NOOR to others too. Never will you be able to forget the wonderful experience that NOOR-The place which makes you shine gave you, something that no other city can ever give you. Just one advice to you is “TO NEVER LET THE NOOR OF HAPPINESS LEAVE YOU!”
